

CURRICULUM VITAE Prof. Dr. Mario Blumthaler

23.8.1952	born in Innsbruck, Austria
1958 - 1970	primary and secondary school in Innsbruck
1970 - 1975	study of experimental physics at the University Innsbruck
20.12.1975	Master degree, authorization for teaching in physics, mathematics, chemistry
1976 - 1979	Dissertation in experimental physics: "Snow as porous media - experimental and theoretical investigation of the flowing dynamics of melting water".
10.2.1979	PhD
1974 - 1981	Assistant at the Institute for Experimental Physics, University Innsbruck
since 1981	Assistant at the Institute for Medical Physics, University Innsbruck
21.12.1990	Habilitation for Medical Physics, Associate Professor Head of the research group "UV radiation"

Publications:

134 peer reviewed papers

18 contributions to books

109 proceedings

Reviewer for about 20 international journals

Research projects:

since 1997, partner in 9 international projects, funded by the European Union, coordinator in 1 of them.

in 2008, 4 national projects running, i.e. operation of the Austrian UVB monitoring network.

Homepage: <http://www.uv-index.at>